Motion made by Bob Robinson and seconded by Bob Tuffy to pay the bills.

Dues Report Tina Gittleman: none

At this point, because we had several new faces at the meeting, we went around the room and introduced ourselves and welcomed the perspective members.

Membership: Sue Nerbecki talked about having a membership drive. Take calendars and pass them out at car shows, parades, etc. and bring in new members. Contest will be held with all members sponsoring a new member getting a chance to win something special.

Public Relations: Sue Nerbecki: June Happenings Magazine will run an article about our Club.

Governor's Report None (still looking for a Governor)

Charity: Pat Cockerill and Mary Ann Abbott: Remember, if you have a special local charity you would like the Club to donate $100 to see either Pat or Mary Ann to fill out a form. Remember 1 request per member per 12 month period.

Property Report: None

Web Site: Nothing to report

Corvette Corner: Jon Valentine talked about bring our cars out of winter storage for the season. Remember to let the car "come awake" for the first 15-20 miles. He also told us to watch dealerships telling you need lots of work on your cars to rack up large bills. Before you agree to any major work being done on you car get a second or even third opinion. It seems that Shell gasoline currently is the cleanest and best for the cars.

Aug. 13 50th Reunion Summer Party . Plains Pavilion, Plains

Old Business:

We are still looking for a Governor.

We received only one bid for the January, 2018 Members Appreciation Party. Tina Gittleman presented a bid from Fiorelli's (where we had party last year) for $33/head. Jay Demerer made a motion to accept bid, seconded by Barb McCracken. All in favor.

Bids for Summer reunion were received from Bert Occulto and from Top Cuisine. Top Cuisine price came in lower and we need to have a lower number of people.

Club jackets, Sue Nerbecki reported that several have been delivered, while waiting on more hopefully next month. Orders are still being taken. See Sue. Payment is due at time of order. Jim Cockerill complimented and thanked Rob and Sue for running with this project.

New Business:

Reunion tee shirts: Tina told the Club that Barb McCracken is taking orders, with payment, for not only tees, but hoodies, sweatshirts, and golf shirts. See Barb for an order form.

A motion was made by Bob Tuffy and seconded by Sue Nerbecki to accept the bid from Top Cuisine for the catering of our 50th Reunion Summer Party. A vote was taken and the motion passed.

Good of the Club:

We have merchandise for sale.
